

HISTORIC LOCATION

The historic Castor building where our restaurant is located was constructed in 1891 by William H. Castor, a local farmer and entrepreneur.

The first tenant in this location was The Clark Supply House. Starting as a supplier of stoves, ranges and plumbing supplies, over time it sold windmills, pipe, fire brick and incandescent lamps.

On the third floor of the building was the Cherokee Lodge of the Independent Order of Red Men. This fraternal order, founded in 1904, traced its beginnings back to Dec. 16, 1773, Samuel Adams and the founding of the Sons of Liberty. The Sons of Liberty are believed to be the group that organized the Boston Tea Party.

Grindstone Public House honors the legacy of the building and history of downtown Noblesville. With a robust whiskey selection, craft beers, and unique wine selection, we hope you enjoy!
